Utah castle 338 held a very interesting meeting last Monday evening. Fair Lady Wallace was with us again after a six weeks' absence. Her daughter is quite well again. The card party committee made a final report and the proceeds were turned over to the secretary. Fair Lady Ferris resigned her office of chief counselor on account of her leaving the city, and Fair Lady Wallace was elected to the position. The fair ladies and clansmen were sorry to lose the counselor, but after expressing their regrets they bade her "bon voyage," hoping to have her back again some day. Arrangements were made for an early meeting tonight, so that the members might get away in time to help greet the Wizard of the Wa-
